LOCAL AGENTS WANTED.

We desire to procure the services of a local agent in every Post office District in the State. Will offer friends or procurer like services of some additional person in our behalf. Believing that the elevation of the Democrat may be materially extended, we make this appeal to our friends in its behalf.

RE The favorite argument of some Republicans is, that slave labor, when brought into contact with the white laborer, degrades him. So far as this has any practical meaning, we might admit it, and still it would prove nothing for them, since the degradation consists only in reducing the price of the labor. But we deny it. This class of argument is only heard in States where the two classes of labor do not exist. It is only heard in Free States. Such an argument is never heard in Slave States. It is a theory never propounded in them, and we never hear it, except from those who believe that labor is itself degrading. Some cockney editor, who sweats at his tripod for his daily bread, assumes that those whose daily bread is earned by the work of the hands are beneath him, and finds his soul revolt at the idea of having to harden his hands in useful and honorable toil. There runs through all his mind the degradation of labor." It is his one idea, and he cannot write without betraying his intense abhorrence of it in one form or other. His very demagoguism which he addresses to the laboring man is itself an insult. If these could once get into their minds that labor, no matter by who performed, is honorable, their difficulties would be at end.

We confess that we do not exactly know what these men mean by saying that labor is degrading in the Slave States, or the white laborer is degraded. His condition is better, it is confessed. If he is industrious and temperate, his chances of success in the world are better.

ABUSE OF THE PRESIDENT BY AN ANTI-ABOLITION CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.—The Rochester (N. Y.) Union quotes the following expression of General Wadsworth, made to two citizens of Rochester:

"If Republican journals wish for the names of the gentlemen who heard the expression of General W. they will please address us a note to that effect."

The following was Wadsworth's language:

"By G—d, it is too bad that the interest of this great country should be under the control of a feebly man at Washington, (President,) and of the Superintendent of a second-class Western Railroad, (General McClellan.) By G—d, it is too bad."

General Wadsworth is the Abolition candidate for Governor of New York.

MURDERED BY NEGROES.—Henry Worthington, of Covington, received a dispatch Sunday evening, from Mayville, announcing that his brother, Gen. Samuel Worthington, of Mason county, Kentucky, had been murdered by a couple of his slaves, on Saturday last, on his farm, a few miles back of Mayville. Gen. Worthington was a brother of W. B. Worthington, who was killed by the rebels, a month or so ago, during the fight at Augusta, Ky.

A gentleman, who arrived from Lexington, Ky., on Saturday, states that the famous guerrilla chief, Gen. John Morgan, was badly wounded while harassing the Federal army of Gen. G. W. Morgan, during its march from Cumberland Gap to the Ohio river. It has been ascertained, also, that Gen. Kirby Smith moved his army to Richmond with the expectation of intercepting Gen. G. W. Morgan.

RE Some Republican papers seem anxious to deny that "the Governors" intend to meet on their mission of mischief, as they did some time ago, and finish what was not well done to their notion before. We are disposed to believe that they are not going to meet just now. Several States vote shortly, and their meeting before didn't help their cause. It would do worse now. These Governors are calculating politicians, and understand the results at the ballot-box. They will not tempt fortune again. They have met once too often already, and they know it. Morgan and Morton were not at the former meeting. They are too smart to put their feet in such traps.

A list of the vote in the Iowa regiments is published by Republican sheets, and it confirms the charge that Democratic tickets were destroyed, and tickets written in pencil rejected. They give the vote of twenty-six regiments, and they average 288 votes each. Of course this is not half the vote of these regiments. What became of the rest of the vote? It was rejected, or not taken, as has been charged. The authorities had better not published the list; for it seems to confirm what was charged, of unfairness in taking or returning the vote, which gave, of course, a large Republican majority.

RE Greeley, say his admirers, has enough for two heads. With such heads he might as well expect him to go right as a skiff to run itself because it had two souls.

RE We have a number of iron-clads, but Mr. Secretary Welles doesn't seem disposed to put his irons in the fire.

RE Dion Bourcier is proposing to the Londoners to build a handsome theater for the city. It will combine the plans and improvements of the French and New York modern theaters.

RE The Charleston Mercury denounces Bragg for not whipping Buell, and for his slowness in both fighting and marching.

RE We have a number of iron-clads, but Mr. Secretary Welles doesn't seem disposed to put his irons in the fire.

A LYRICAL GEM.

The following lullaby is sufficiently tender and musical to make every woman who reads it wish for a baby to sing it to:

Let me gather you, body and soul to myself
Bury your scintillant eyes and hair,
And lay you down in the soft, dark bower,
Giving you rest to golden crown.

A shush, my baby, to the bower,
Crowning a song in old rhyme.

Tender and soft, a lullaby.

Sleep, baby boy,
The little birdy rest,
Dawn and soft,
The lambkin's nest;

The lambs are safe
In the shepherd's warm fold;

The stars look down
In the darkness of the skies.

Sleep, baby boy,
My bairn, my lambkin,
My lambkin, my bairn!
While heart aches in time,
Beats softly in time.

To the bairn, my bairn,
Of my tender old rhyme!

COMING HOME.

They are coming home, coming home,
Brother and lover, father and son,
Friends and foes, coming home
To rest, for their work is done.

They come from hospital, picket and field,
From iron boat and floating fort,
In silent companies, slowly wheeling
Home to the land of the free.

This was a father of women and men,
Gray-haired but bold and strong of limb;
The bayonet flashed and flashed again,
And the old man's eyes grew dim.

He had a form of manly grace;

The horseman, the soldier, the air,
Dressed in his blood-stained picket, a picture, a Curt and a curl of silken hair.

There was a bright-eyed, venturesome boy;
He had the periwinkle picket-ground,
Then home, then the dream of joy,
To a ghostly, fatal womb;

And thus for days lingering,

He talked in wandering, rapid speech,
Of the flying field, and the cooling spring.

He was a coming home, but not as they went;

With the flying field, and the stirring hand,
From the distant waving land.

THE PRACTICAL EFFECT OF NEGRO FANATICISM.

It is astonishing how strongly fanaticalism on the negro question seizes hold of some white people. These gentry, however, are not subjects for pity, unless in this, that their own slaves are not as black and their heads are as woolly as those of the African gorilla. On Madison street, in this city, there is a boarding house kept especially for the accommodation of white people, who have been learned and who will receive the attention they seek. Captain Clegg is master of this house, and a most accomplished and cultivated lady is helping me to keep it. [Great laughter.] You will see, therefore, enacted from now to election day of "The Lady keeps the Secret." [Great laughter.] The material for the negro to know is whether it is authentic, and that being conceded, whether the contents are of a great importance to be known, and whether, being known, they should be acted upon. What was ventured to say the other night was that its information being given to the President he should have regarded it.

A Word of Apology.

Our press is being repaired, and our paper is worked off in another office. Our early mail failed yesterday, owing to our arrangement of machinery.

We will have our own press in order in a day or two, and trust there will then be no more mail-failures. We are sure our patrons cannot be more disturbed by them than ourselves.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.—Monday afternoon the Louisville Rifle Club, members who aimed at the target, passed through the body of a man named Adam Miller, who was driving, opposite to where the target stood, some cows. The unfortunate man died that night about twelve o'clock. He leaves a wife and several children. Coroner Gill held an inquest on the body.

GENERAL DAVIS INDICTED.—An indictment for manslaughter was returned by the grand jury of the Jefferson Circuit Court Monday against Brigadier General Jeff C. Davis, the accused having caused the death of Major General Wm. Nelson. The hearing of the case was continued until the next term of the court.

FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon, about half past one o'clock, a frame stable, wood-house, sheds, etc., in the rear of the residence of Mrs. Whipple, who lives on Portland Avenue, below the Marine Hospital were burned. The engines were not called out on account of the scarcity of water in that vicinity. The coal was all that was saved.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, Oct. 28. The Police Court was entirely void of interest this morning; a good indication of the improved state of morality of our city.

A warrant against George Howard for passing counterfeit money was dismissed, it being proven that he came in possession of the money honestly.

The infamous rebel preacher Scobee, whose character was recently referred by the Methodist Conference at Owensboro to a committee, with one year to report thereon, is at the head of a gang of rebel robbers who infest Warren and Butler counties. Scobee is a Major in the rebel service.

INQUISTION.—No. 32—Held October 28th, at Germantown, on the body of Adam Miller (German). Verdict, came to his death by a wound through the body, caused by a ball fired from a rifle, in the hands of a member of the German Rifle Club. Name unknown. JAMES C. GILL, Coroner.

There are at present upwards of four thousand sick and wounded in the hospitals in this city. They are getting along finely, receiving every care and attention from the Medical Department, under the charge of Dr. Head.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A bridge builder, by the name of James Sullivan, of this city, fell from Green river bridge yesterday. He was from forty-five to fifty years of age. His remains were brought to this city by last night's train.

Twelve hundred convalescent sick and wounded soldiers arrived from Lexington and Frankfort yesterday. They will be forwarded to their different regiments immediately.

Major General Thomas L. Crittenton is at present with his family in this city. We are gratified to see that his health is perfect.

The Mobile Register admits that nearly 10,000 rebels have taken the oath of allegiance to the United States Government.

THANKS.—We are thankful to our young friend, Will T. Hamilton, D. S., for favors.

Immediate Help for the Sick and Wounded Soldiers.

We are requested by the Sanitary Commission to say that a large number of sick soldiers have arrived here, for whom immediate aid is requested. The Medical Director has taken Judge Griffin's house, on the Newburg road, and other buildings, for hospitals, and will furnish them at once. But the sick have been sent in so suddenly, that it is impossible, for a few days, to have the requisite arrangements for preparing food perfectly made. In the meantime, our humane citizens can render great service by contributing suitable articles of food.

The Sanitary Commission, therefore, earnestly request that soup, corn-bread, stewed fruits and other appropriate articles be sent to their rooms, on Fifth street, by ten o'clock this morning, and every morning until the hospitals have their arrangements for the comfort of the men complete. A wagon will be in readiness to convey the food at once to the hospitals.

MORE REBEL PRISONERS.—Capt. W. H. Garrett, of company K, 103d Ohio Volunteers, with a squad of twelve men, reached our city last night with thirty-seven rebel prisoners, most of them were in Humphrey Marshall's command. Their names are as follows:

William Dutton, Sam. Cox, Dudley Branton, J. C. Johnson, Alfred Reeman, W. D. Thorp, T. J. Wilburn, Y. W. Kennedy, J. C. Smith, H. N. Laws, Merritt Waite, Jackson Morgan, C. W. Fletcher, James Pettis, T. A. Clark, Jas. M. Hyatt, N. B. Phillips, P. W. Hyatt, John L. Finner, Jas. Cardwell, W. M. Morgan, R. C. Lanford, W. M. Richardson, G. W. McKinney, Wm. Irving, A. V. Alland, M. Dunn, Captain Childs, B. F. Young, H. Wooley, D. J. Futch, Milton Philips, Jas. Gibson, Thomas Moore, W. A. Norris, T. F. Johnson, and K. Rogers.

PERSONAL.—Col. L. J. Bradford, and Scott McKibben, Esq., of Augusta, Kentucky, arrived in the city on business of importance with Gov. Robinson. They leave this morning for Frankfort. We learn from Mr. McKibben our fate in relation to the fight at Augusta, which we do not remember having seen in print: After our small force, under Col. Bradford, was captured, and the rebels left the town, they sent in a flag of truce, asking permission to bury their dead—thus acknowledging that they had been whipped. If all other communities had acted nobly, as did the Augustians, John Morgan would have left the State, or been cut to pieces before this time.

GENERAL ROSECRANS.—The telegraph tells us various stories about General Rosecrans; but we presume it will at length be acknowledged that he does not supersede General Buell. If assigned to a command in West Tennessee, he did not need to go to Cincinnati; his headquarters would be at Corinth where he was. We presume he is ordered to report to Gen. Wright. One rumor has it that he is to supersede Gen. Morgan, which we do not believe. Our opinion, and it is only our opinion, is that he supersedes General Gordon Granger, and will advance with the Cincinnati army, as rapidly as possible, to East Tennessee, and there co-operate with Gen. Buell in the middle of the State.

RUNAWAY—Mule Killed.—Yesterday morning two horses, attached to a gunter's wagon, ran away, from the corner of Franklin and Market streets, going up the latter street at full speed until they came in contact with a gunter's wagon, Ferguson & Smith's mill. The tongue of the wagon entered the mule's side, killing him instantly. The horses were stopped. There is too much carelessness on the part of drivers leaving their teams standing in the streets, and they should be more cautious about it.

SICK AND WOUNDED.—We publish this morning a long list of sick and wounded who have been received at this point since Monday. The number arrived, mostly sick, has been 2,100; and for the accommodation of this large number, extra buildings have been taken by the authorities. Among others, the Masonic Temple, the Blind Asylum, and a large warehouse of Mr. Griffin's, on the Newburg road. More accommodations are needed, the property of active rebel sympathizers will be unhesitatingly appropriated.

GREEN RIVER BRIDGE.—We learn from Blane Marshall, Esq., the accomplished Superintendent of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, that the Green river bridge will be completed on Friday evening. Passenger trains will go direct to Bowling Green on Saturday morning next, without any change of cars. This is a quick job, and Messrs. Bolley & Fink deserve much credit for their great skill and assiduity in putting up bridges on this road for the last year. Some of their great feats are un-suspected.

GENERAL McCLELLAN AND BUELL.—We learn from General McClellan and Buell are the two best-versed men on this continent. Why? Because the radicals cannot use them to further their aims. They are the only officers, so far as we know, who possess the good sense and self-reliance to let the liars lie on without contradiction, knowing that, if let alone, they will convict themselves.

McCOOK'S REPORT.—The Cincinnati Commercial, of yesterday, publishes General McCook's official report of the battle of Chaplin Hills. We will try to find room to-morrow for the greater portion of it. Those who expected to find it in that report, food to keep up their malicious attacks on Buell, will find themselves greatly mistaken.

GENERAL DAVIS.—An indictment for manslaughter was returned by the grand jury of the Jefferson Circuit Court Monday against Brigadier General Jeff C. Davis, the accused having caused the death of Major General Wm. Nelson. The hearing of the case was continued until the next term of the court.

FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon, about half past one o'clock, a frame stable, wood-house, sheds, etc., in the rear of the residence of Mrs. Whipple, who lives on Portland Avenue, below the Marine Hospital were burned. DR. ROBACK'S
and

BLOOD PILLS

have been introduced to the public for more than six years, and have acquired an Immense Popularity, far exceeding any Family Medicine of a similar nature in the market.

An advertising public was not long in discovering they possessed remarkable

Curative Properties, and hence their

Rapid Sale
and consequent profit to the Proprietor thus enabling him to expend

Many Thousands of dollars each year in advertising their merits, and publishing the Numerous Certificates which have been showered upon him from All parts of the Country.

The peculiarity of the Blood Purifier and Pills
is that they strike at the root of Disease, by eradicating every particle of impurity

In the Blood,
for the life and health of the body depends upon the purity of the blood.

If the blood is poisoned, the body drags out a miserable existence. These medicines are Unequaled

for curing Sorefules, Liver Complaint,
Sciatic Diseases, Female Complaints,
Salt Rheum, Rheumatisms,
Dyspepsia, Erysipelas,
Old Sores, Fever and Ague, Leucorrhoea, Sick Headache,
Erysipelas, St. Anthony's Fire,
Tumors, Eruptions,
Fits, Sorefules Consumption, etc.

ONE person writes, her daughter was cured of fits of nine years' standing, and St. Vitus' dance of ten years' standing.

ANOTHER writes, his son was cured after his flesh had almost wasted away.

The doctor pronounced the case incurable.

ANOTHER was cured of Fever and Ague after trying every medicine in his reach.

ANOTHER was cured of Fever Sore which had existed fourteen years.

ANOTHER of Rheumatism of eight years.

Case innumerable of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint could be mentioned in which the Purifier and Pills

Work like a Charm.

The Blood Purifier
and Pills are the most active and thorough pills that have ever been introduced.

They act so directly upon the Liver, exciting that organ to such an extent as that the system does not relax into its former condition, which is too apt to be the case with any purgative pills.

They are really a

Blood Purifier,
will cure all the aforementioned disease,
and, themselves, will relieve and cure

Headache, Costiveness,

Colic Pains, Cholera Morbus,

Indigestion, Pain in the Bowels,

Dizziness, etc.

Try these medicines, and you will never regret it.

Ask your neighbors, who have used them, and they will say they are

Good Medicines,

and you should try them before going for a physician.

Get a Pamphlet or Almanac of my local agent, and read the certificates, and if you have ever doubted you will Doubt no more.

As a proof that the Blood Purifier and Pills are purely vegetable, I have the certificates of those eminent chemists, Professors Clifton of New York, and Loco of Philadelphia.

Dr. Roback's Special Notices and Certificates published in a conspicuous part of this Paper from time to time.

Price of the Scandinavian Vegetable Blood Purifier,
$1 per bottle, or $2 per half dozen. Of the Scandinavian Vegetable Blood Pills, 25 cents per box, or

MORRIS FRANKLIN, Pres. & Genl. Mgr.

ISAAC C. KENDALL, Vice President.

DR. W. H. TROTTER, Secy. & Cashier.

WM. H. BEERS, General Agent.

THIS IS A PURELY MUTUAL COMPANY, ALL
THE PROFIT BEING DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED, AND NOT IN THE FORM OF DIVIDENDS.

The New York Life Insurance Company has now in course of operation a Ten Year Plan-Non-Forfeiture of $2,000,000. Its dividends have never been less than 30 per cent. on the premiums paid, and the policyholders have the right to withdraw 25 per cent. of the premium paid.

It has deposited with the Comptroller of New York, as an evidence of good standing, $1,000,000 in Gold and Trust Funds in New York City, and $1,000,000 in Gold and Trust Funds in New York, or of the United States, or an unincorporated Real Estate, worth $1,000 per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon.

THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY—Originated by the New York Insurance Company, the table on which this class of policies is based, is based, and is now in operation, and is now in force, in taking out a policy.

Insuring to-day for $1,000,000, and for the first five thousand immediately becomes a claim, and the premium paid for the first five thousand, his policy is paid up; nothing more to pay, and a source of income to continue, making it a policy a source of income to the assured. The amount of weight offered against insurance is less than inveradility, inadmissibility, &c., not be able to continue paying, and then losses all he has paid.

THE T. H. HELMBOLD & CO. COMPANY—Will convene this October by the Ten Year Plan and Non-Forfeiture, and will pay up to the assured, for the first five thousand, the amount of the premium paid in.

Thus, if one insuring by this plan for $2,000,000, discontinues after the second year, the company will pay up to him the amount of the premium paid in, viz.,

Second year, two-tenths of amount insured, $1,000

Third " four-tenths of $5,000 insured, 2,000

Fifth " five-tenths of $5,000 2,500 and so on to the tenth payment, when all is paid and the dividends are received.
